MASTERCLASS SERIES

LEADERSHIP AND LEARNING: RENEWING LEADERSHIP

In this masterclass, Dr Douglas Reeves will advance three essential ideas:

First, leadership matters for schools and educational systems, particularly in times of crisis and challenge.

Second, leadership vision is necessary but not sufficient. We need clear and specific blueprints of actions for teachers, leaders, and communities.

Third, hope in troubled times is not a matter of blind faith, but a combination of several factors in the HOPE matrix: Hope, Optimism, Purpose, and Empathy. New research concepts include:

- Renewal coaching
- Web 2.0 dilemmas
- Teacher stress and anxiety
- Impact of data teams
- Leadership maps
- Finding focus

Doug will include several interactive learning activities that will engage every participant at every level of school leadership, from the classroom to the board room. The founder of The Leadership and Learning Center, Doug has worked on educational leadership issues on every continent. His more than twenty books are widely used by teachers, professors, and professional development leaders around the world. He shares his research freely at www.LeadandLearn.com and responds to personal requests for information at DReeves@LeadandLearn.com, or + (01) (978) 740 3001, ext. 12

Dr. Douglas Reeves is the founder of The Leadership and Learning Center. He has worked with education, business, nonprofit, and government organisations throughout the world. The author of more than 20 books and many articles on leadership and organisational effectiveness, he has twice been named to the Harvard University Distinguished Authors Series. His monthly column on change leadership appears in Educational Leadership. Dr. Reeves was named the Brock International Laureate for his contribution to education. He also received the Distinguished Service Award from the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the Parents Choice Award for his writing for children and parents
