

AISNSW HISTORY EXTENSION SYMPOSIUM 2024

Rewriting History - Historiographical Shifts and Legacies

Zeugma Mosaic Museum, Turkey

Monday, 28 October 2024

AISNSW

#AISNSW

9:00am - 9:05am	Acknowledgement of Country and Welcome to the Symposium Carlo Tuttocuore AISNSW Teaching and Learning Consultant & Phil Gordon AISNSW History Convenor
9:05am - 10:05am	Virtual Keynote Address I - What is History Now? Helen Carr Helen Carr is an elected fellow of the Royal Historical Society and currently with Queen Mary University London.
10:05am - 10:55am	Panel Discussion - You Can't Ask That: The History Extension course from a former student's perspective Dr Rowan Lawrence & former history extension students from Barker College (Facilitated by Phil Gordon AISNSW History Convenor & Carlo Tuttocuore AISNSW Teaching and Learning Consultant)
10:55am - 11:00am	Housekeeping
11:00am - 11:25am	MORNING TEA
11:30am - 12:30pm	Workshops
	Spain and the Aztec Empire Emma Bergin Queenwood School for Girls	Early Modern Witch Hunts: Persecution from Top-down or Bottom-up? David Van Tol Kambala School	Winston Churchill Erica Looyen Macarthur Anglican School	Margaret Thatcher Dr Georgia Macbeth St Aloysius' College	"Constructing History Smorgasbord" Exploring the key questions and concepts of the course through "Constructing History" case studies Claire Butler, Matthew Driscoll & John MacLean The Scots College
12:30pm - 1:10pm	LUNCH
1:15pm - 2:15pm	Plenary Session 1 - How to deepen historical understanding: Reframing the teaching of Histography in Question 1 Dr Catherine Arends Ravenswood School for Girls
2:15pm - 3:00pm	Creative Approaches to Teaching the Case Study Michelle Kennedy North Sydney Girls' High School
3:00pm - 3:10pm	Symposium Evaluation and Closure Carlo Tuttocuore AISNSW Teaching and Learning Consultant				