
Kane Bradford – Workshop

STRATEGIC RECRUITMENT AND INNOVATIVE WORKFORCE PLANNING

Kane Bradford leads the teaching and learning agenda at Lindisfarne Anglican Grammar School, where he is also the Hub Coordinator for the AISNSW Teaching School Hubs program. In this session, Kane will be joined by Ms Tiah Curtis-Giselle, Education Trainee in her second year with the program. The session will focus on the strategic recruitment of ITE students before they graduate as teachers. This session will delve into effective techniques and best practices for attracting and retaining new talent, with a special emphasis on leveraging the program run by AISNSW. Whether you are looking to enrich your school's teaching staff or seeking innovative recruitment strategies, this workshop will provide valuable insights and practical advice to enhance your recruitment efforts.
