2025 Teaching School Learning Forum

Why Attend?

The 2025 Teaching School Learning Forum is designed to inspire, innovate, and invigorate the educational community. This two-day event brings together school leaders, educators, academics, and initial teacher education students to explore pathways into teaching and practical strategies for workforce attraction and retention.

Key Benefits of Attending

- Learn actionable strategies to address workforce challenges, improve teacher retention, and foster sustainable career growth.
- Engage with three tailored streams designed for early-career educators, mentor teachers, and school leaders.
- Collaborate with a diverse network of professionals committed to shaping the future of education.
- Discover innovative, evidence-based approaches to creating positive, inclusive, and effective teaching environments.

What You will Gain

The 2025 forum directly responds to the critical need to sustain a robust and dedicated education workforce. Topics include:

- Developing career pathways to attract and retain top talent.
- Creating supportive and inclusive environments that enhance job satisfaction.
- Implementing workload-balancing practices to encourage long-term commitment to teaching.

Who should attend

This event is ideal for professionals invested in alternative employment-based pathways and the future of teaching, including:

- School Leaders
- Directors of Teaching and Learning
- Directors/Coordinators of Professional Practice
- Mentor Teachers and Aspiring Mentors
- Initial Teacher Educators
- Education Trainees in alternate employment-based pathways.

Specialised Streams

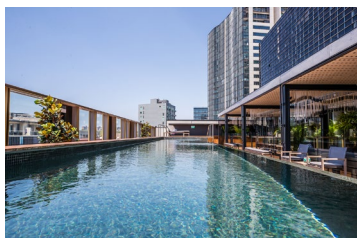

Tailored to meet your needs, the forum features streams for:

- Education Trainees and ITE Students: Build confidence as you transition into teaching.
- Mentor Teachers: Strengthen mentoring skills with research and evidence-informed strategies.
- Leaders: Explore visionary workforce strategies to shape the future of education.
