

Wingara
Learnings Shared Together

AISNSW Wingara

Professional Learning Offerings 2025

2025 is a Pivotal Year for Aboriginal Education

With Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student enrolments doubling over the past decade and new syllabuses integrating more Aboriginal content, the need for culturally safe and responsive learning has never been greater.

The AISNSW Wingara team offers professional learning courses for leaders, teachers, and support staff, providing practical strategies to enhance Cultural safety and inclusive teaching.

Equip your school to meet the evolving needs of all students by exploring the opportunities below:

AISNSW Wingara Education Conference 2025 - Cultural Empowerment and Educational Excellence: The Waratah Project in Action

Monday 15 & Tuesday 16 September 2025

CONFERENCE EVENT at Aerial Function Centre, The University of Technology

Makarrata in Faith-Based Education: Aboriginal Spirituality in School Culture

Thursday 3 April
AISNSW
FACE-TO-FACE

Supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education in Your School

Tuesday 13 May AISNSW
FACE-TO-FACE

Developing Reconciliation Action Plans and Culturally Responsive Schools

Thursday 19 June
Monday 3 November
AISNSW
FACE-TO-FACE

Understanding the Ongoing Impact of Trauma in Aboriginal Communities

Wednesday 21 May AISNSW
FACE-TO-FACE

Learning On-Country: East Arnhem Land Cultural Immersion

17 - 23 August
East Arnhem Land
FACE-TO-FACE

Empowering Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students in Boarding Schools

Available from 3 February to 12 December
SELF-PACED

Personalised Learning Processes for Aboriginal Students

Available from 3 February to 12 December
SELF-PACED

To explore other opportunities, including embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Perspectives across the curriculum visit our Course Page.

Email
wingara@aisnsw.edu.au
for more information