Leading from the Middle
This program supports a school-based strategy to develop the confidence, competence and vision of middle leaders P-12 resulting in increased impact on student learning. Learning is situated in the context of the school and tailored to the needs of the participants.

Next Level Leadership for Executive Teams (NExT)
Designed to enhance the effectiveness and impact of executive teams, this dynamic and tailored program is situated in the strategic priorities and work of the school. Through disciplined design thinking processes, individuals are uplifted to see their unique and valuable contribution to the team and build the robust communication strategies required to drive a project of significance.

Leading Strategically: From purpose to impact
We support schools to develop a compelling strategic intent from which to determine key priorities and actions for impact. Our customised support is designed to build individual and collective capacity to meet the schools aspirational learning outcomes, now and into the future. For more information, contact Michael Bignill (mbignill@aisnsw.edu.au).
