

AISNSW HISTORY EXTENSION SYMPOSIUM 2020

After the Fact - History in a Post-Truth World

Friday, 16 October 2020

NOW A VIRTUAL EVENT

8:45am	Waiting Room
9:00am	Welcome and Introduction to the Symposium, Acknowledgement of Country Carlo Tuttocuoire, Teaching and Learning Consultant, AISNSW
9:05am	Keynote One - The Long View: Assess the State of History - Reflecting on the Disciplinary, Institutional, Social and Political Challenges Facing their Subject in a Post-Truth Era Dr Hannah Forsyth, Senior Lecturer, Australian Catholic University
10:05am	Keynote Two - Peoples' History at Scale: Understanding the Force of Global History for the Present Professor Catharine Coleborne, Head of School and Dean of Arts, School of Humanities and Social Science - Faculty of Education and Arts, The University of Newcastle
11:05am	Morning Tea
11:35am	Workshop 1 - Video Games as Historiography Dr Fiona Radford Queenwood School for Girls and Rebecca Poole, Wenona School
12.35pm	Workshop 2 - Approaches to Supporting your Students in the History Extension Project Dr Samuel Jackson, Arndell Anglican College
1:30pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Workshop 3 - Reframing Postmodernism Dr Rowan Lawrence, Barker College
3:00pm	Evaluation and Symposium Closure