

Gathering Information

Information comes from a variety of sources. Interviews, observations and prior records all provide a starting point.

The student and family

The classroom teacher/s and related school personnel

External Professionals

Observation

Questionnaires