About this program

This in-school consultancy is designed to help schools ensure they are doing all that is necessary to protect the students in their care. It provides staff with an overview of the critical elements for creating a child-safe organisation, as well as helping schools to reduce the risk of child protection allegations being made against staff.

Who is the program for?

All staff can benefit from participating but in particular, principals, deputy principals, senior executives, business managers, human resource managers or those in schools with responsibilities in leadership, policy development, pastoral care and/or wellbeing.

What does the program include?

The program draws on current research and provides a range of practical strategies and tools to assist schools to create a culture of safety. It covers topics such as:

- child-safe organisations
- the NSW child protection legislative context
- understanding sexual abuse
- creating a culture of safety

Duration

The length of this consultancy can be tailored to suit the requirements of the school and can be run as a half day or full day program. The Creating Safer Independent Schools program is available now to be delivered at your school.

Completing the Creating Safer Independent Schools half day or full day course will contribute three or six hours respectively of NESA registered professional learning addressing 4.4.3, 7.1.3 and 7.2.3 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Highly Accomplished Teacher Accreditation in NSW.
